

...education for a changing world

INSURANCE
SOCIETY of Philadelphia

456 Public Ledger Building - Philadelphia, PA 19106-0088 (215)627-5306 www.insurancesociety.org

Deepwater Disaster: Risk, Insurance, Legal & Media Lessons Learned from the Gulf Oil Spill

September 15, 2010

Gain current and emerging knowledge on loss control, engineering, insurance coverage, public relations and other critical and relevant topics on this crisis as they affect your profession. Hear expert presentations; earn CE and CLE credits; and, network with industry professionals.

Course ID: 15739
Time: 8:30 – 12:30
Location: Saint Joseph's University – Champion Student Center
5600 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19131
Tuition: $249 (Includes CE/CLE Filing Fees)
Register at: www.insurancesociety.org or call (215)627-5306

SPEAKER PANEL

Alan R. Ball

Staff Engineer, Douglas G. Peterson, Associates

Licensed Civil Engineer with decades of experience in complex, industrial & utilities facility engineering, former U.S. Navy Nuclear Reactor Operator with extensive water-borne reactor experience.

Stanley A. Kays, Jr.

AVP Marine Loss Control Engineering, Chartis

Thirty-two years of ocean and inland marine loss control engineering, specializing in offshore platform rig and specialty vessel damage surveys and loss prevention audits.

Kellyn Muller, Esq.
C. Tyler Havey, Esq.

Members, Cozen O'Connor

Practice in the Global Insurance Group, focusing on coverage defense of factually complex matters involving 1st and 3rd party primary and excess policies, long tail and toxic tort, construction catastrophe, products liability and commercial litigation.

Steven Rosen

President, Public Relations, Star Group

Twenty-five years of award-winning experience counseling insurance, financial, chemical and manufacturing (and other) clients with special expertise in crisis communications and media relations.

OTHER PANELISTS

Joseph A. DiAngelo

Host - Dean, Saint Joseph's University Erivan K. Haub School of Business

Joseph A. Gerber, Esq.

Moderator - Chairman, Client Relations, Cozen O'Connor

Over forty years experience in multiple areas of the law, public speaking, education and advocacy.

Steve Miller

Panelist - Faculty, Saint Joseph's University

Assistant professor for Corporate Finance and Risk Management & Insurance. Over 10 years of insurance brokerage experience.

...education for a changing world

AGENDA

- 8:00 – 8:30 Arrival and Networking Reception (coffee & light fare served)
- 8:30 – 8:35 Welcome and Opening Remarks.....Joseph DiAngelo
- 8:35 – 8:45 Session Overview/Introduction of 1st Speaker..... Joseph Gerber
- 8:45 – 9:22 Background and Current Status of Gulf Spill.....Alan Ball
- 9:22 – 10:00 Future of Spill Impact and Response Operations...Stanley Kays
- 10:00 - 10:45 Contractual Coverage Discussion..... Muller/Havey
- 10:45 – 11:00 Break
- 11:00 – 11:45 Crisis Response Public Relations.....Steven Rosen
- 11:45 – 12:30 Moderated Panel Discussion.....Joseph Gerber

DIRECTIONS

Saint Joseph’s University – Campion Student Center, 5600 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19131

From I-76, follow Route 1 (City Ave.) South, approximately 2.2 miles onto Saint Joseph’s University Campus (5600 City Avenue, Philadelphia, PA). See attached SJU Campus map.

Park in the SJU garage (left onto 54th Street to bldg. 52 on map). Allow 5-7 minutes to walk, to Campion Student Center (approx. 500 yards from parking bldg.). Walk past Finnesey Field and continue to CSC (bldg.15 on map) at City Ave. and Cardinal Ave.

Click on Workshops & Seminars to Register